

The Mission

This organization shall maintain an association of persons interested in books and libraries; focus public attention on library services, facilities and needs; and aide in the promotion of the library through ways approved by the Board of Trustees of the Tipp City Public Library.

Membership in this organization is open to all who support its purposes.

What Friends Do

Friends are strong advocates for the library, with energies directed toward the promotion of literacy and reading. The group sponsors fundraisers and members work as volunteers when needed.

In the summer, Friends donate time and money to the summer reading clubs for youth, and sponsor a party for all of the kids who complete the reading requirement.

Friends sponsor a Fall Raffle with prizes donated by individuals and businesses. Proceeds support the library's technology needs.

The group's most popular event is the Spring Used Book Sale. Book donations are accepted at the library during regular business hours.

FRIENDS OF THE TIPP CITY PUBLIC LIBRARY

Let's work together for a stronger public library.

Who We Are

The Friends of the Tipp City Public Library is a non-profit organization, formed in 1992, open to all individuals, regardless of age or place of residence.

The Friends of the Tipp City Public Library is a group of volunteers dedicated to enriching, promoting, and sponsoring literacy efforts in our community. They bring together involved, caring people who are willing to work for the excellence of our library through their volunteering efforts. Their ideas and voices support and promote one of our community's greatest assets... The Library.

Contributions

Contributions and membership dues are used to purchase items for the library. In the past, Friends have purchased an Ellison Machine and dies, a Gresco unit for the children's area, camcorder, yearly NAIER membership, and donated money for computers and equipment.

The Benefit

Members of The Friends of the Tipp City Public Library can be proud that they are leaders in the community's effort to maintain a strong public library.

Also, members are invited to a "Friends Only" preview night at the Spring Book Sale.

Our Purpose

- * To foster closer relations between the library and community;
- * To support and cooperate with the library in developing services;
- * To heighten public awareness of the library;
- * To strengthen the promotion of library services and resources;
- * To enable the library to enhance services, expand programs, and add new dimensions that maximize the library's role and usefulness in the community;
- * To assist in the identification of community needs;
- * To encourage volunteer opportunities at the library;
- * To sponsor activities in literature as a means of broadening community awareness and use of library services;
- * To encourage communication between the library and community;
- * To improve all aspects of the library media program;
- * To provide an opportunity for everyone in the community to get involved.
